Professional Development

At Satori Coaching we offer a wide variety of standardized and customized programs delivered either in the workplace or off-site.

Experienced in training, facilitation and group coaching, we work with our clients to ensure relevant and effective programming. Well-crafted professional development is important because it delivers benefits to the individual, their profession, and the workplace.

When employers or organization recognize the skills, needs, and gaps of employees they can begin the process of building a culture where “everyone is singing from the same songbook”. The payoff can be substantial in terms of long-term loyalty and productivity.

Offerings include:

- Strength Based Leadership
- Anger Management and Conflict Resolution
- Communication
- Effective Delegation
- Leadership 2.0
- Management Style – Theory X and Y
- Time Management
- Building Team Charters
- Strategic Planning

Our professional development and facilitation start from C$850
